

Grateful salute to Jerry Garcia

Ten years after the death of Jerry Garcia, WBAI (99.5 FM) runs its annual salute tonight to Garcia and his most famous band, the Grateful Dead.

Actually, host Mandrake of WBAI's "Morning Dew" will focus mostly on Garcia and his own musical diversity. The program will include Garcia's own writings, writings about him and lots of music.

It runs 7 p.m.-midnight and it's part of WBAI's current fund drive.

MIX SHOW: WNEW (102.7 FM) is presenting a free concert tonight at 7 at Eisenhower Park's Harry Chapin Theater in East Meadow, L.I.

Artists will include Martha Wash ("It's Raining Men"), Ce Ce Peniston ("Finally," "We Got a Love Thang") and Evelyn (Champagne) King. The theater is just off Hempstead Turnpike.

AROUND THE DIAL: Pete Fornatale of WFUV (90.7 FM) devotes today's show, 5-8 p.m., to remembering the original WOR-FM, which went on the air on this date in 1966. ... Louis Armstrong is featured tomorrow night on Rich Conaty's "The Big Broadcast" over WFUV, 8-midnight. ... WWRL (1600 AM) carries live coverage of carnivals from Antigua, Barbados and Toronto today. ...Want to crack the voice-over field? Joan Baker, a prominent practitioner and well-known voice coach, has written a book, "Secrets of Voice-Over Success," which is based on interviews with 100 people in the field. It's published by Sentient Publications ($18.95).

David Hinckley

Originally published on July 30, 2005